Should there be a tie at the end of the season, the determining factor for the winner is points accumulated at the highest level, e.g. at the “140 cm & above”; if there is still a tie, the determining factor is the points accumulated at the 135 cm level; and so on and so forth.

2. Dressage Horse of the Year Award (Dragon Hall Dressage Trophy)

This is an award for the best performing Dressage horse-rider combination of the season. Points are accumulated for each horse-rider combination at their *eligible level in All HKEF graded competitions and FEI competitions held in Hong Kong. The determining factor is the sum of accumulated points for up to a maximum of EIGHT best results during the season. Horse-rider combination with fewer than 8 eligible results will still be entitled to compete towards the Dressage HOY Award. Points are awarded according to the below scale:

Score in %	Preliminary	Novice	Elementary	Medium	Advance Medium	Advanced	Prix St-George
60.000% - 61.999%	1	1	2	4	6	8	10
62.000% - 63.999%	2	2	4	6	8	10	12
64.000% - 65.999%	3	3	6	8	10	12	16

80.000% or above per 2% (e.g.80.000%-81.999%)	+2	+3	+4	+6	+6	+6	+7

*Eligible level

Once a horse-rider combination has achieved a score of 65% or above at any given level in five graded tests, the combination must then move onto the next level.

For example a horse-rider combination who scores 65% or above in five Preliminary classes will have to move up to the novice level and will no longer be eligible to enter preliminary level classes.

For details of eligible level for horse-rider combination, please visit HKEF website for further information.

Should there be a tie at the end of the season, the determining factor for the winner will be points accumulated at the highest level, i.e. "Prix St-George or above"; if there is still a tie, the determining factor will be the points accumulated at "Advanced" level; and so on and so forth.

3. Eventing Horse of the Year Award

This is an award for the best performing Eventing horse-rider combination of the season. Placing Points are accumulated for each horse-rider combination in All HKEF graded competitions and FEI competitions held in Hong Kong.  Clean Completion Points (CCP) will be awarded to riders who attained the minimum requirements in each phase in HKEF 80cm or above classes. They will not be awarded to riders with placing points. All combinations are ranked according to the scoring method below:

Clean Completion Points (CCP)

Clean Completion Points (CCP) will be awarded to riders who attained the minimum requirements in each phase in HKEF 80cm or above classes stated below:

a) Dressage Test: not more than 40 penalties (or at least 60%)

b) Cross Country Test: A clear round at obstacles and fewer than 20 time faults

c) Jumping Test: A clear round at obstacles

Should there be a tie at the end of the season, the determining factor for the winner will be points accumulated at the highest level, i.e. 105cm or above classes; if there is still a tie, the determining factor will be the points accumulated at 100cm level; and so on and so forth.

4. Overall Horse of the Year Award (The Helen Griffiths Memorial Trophy)

This is an award for the best performing horse-rider combination that has competed in all three disciplines (Jumping, Dressage & Eventing) during the season. This Overall Horse of the Year Award will be awarded to the horse which has the highest combined ranking according to the ranking lists of the three individual disciplines.

Should there be a tie in the combined ranking at the end of the season, the horses tied for first place will be declared joint winners for the award.

5. Junior Rider of the Year Award (The Jose Remedios Memorial Trophy)

This is an award for the best performing junior rider who is 18 years of age or under on 1 September in the year at the start of season. Points for each rider will be awarded according to the point system as described for the 3 discipline awards above.

Should there be a tie at the end of a season, the riders tied for first place will be declared joint winners for the award.

6. The Hong Kong Jockey Club Best Retired Racehorse Award

This is an award for the best retired racehorse that has competed in all three disciplines (Jumping, Dressage & Eventing) during the season. This Best Retired Racehorse Award will be awarded to the retired racehorse with the highest combined HOY ranking according to the ranking lists of the three individual disciplines. Should there be a tie in the combined ranking at the end of the season, the retired racehorses tied for first place will be declared joint winners for the award.

7. The Hong Kong Jockey Club Best 'Newcomer' Retired Racehorse Award

This is an award for the best 'newcomer' retired racehorse(s) in each of the disciplines (Jumping, Dressage or Eventing) during their first graded competition season in that discipline. A Best 'Newcomer' Retired Racehorse Award will be awarded to the 'newcomer' retired racehorse(s) which achieved the highest placing among the 'newcomer' retired racehorses according to the HOY ranking list before the end of its first graded competition season in the respective discipline.

Should there be a tie at the end of the season, the determining factor(s) for the winner will be as follow;

For Jumping and Eventing:

- (a) Double up the points achieved at the Horse of the Year Show of the corresponding discipline, higher accumulated points will be the winner, if a tie still exists;
- (b) Level of difficulty: The 'newcomer' retired racehorse participated at the higher level of events without elimination or withdrawal will be the winner, if a tie still exists;
- (c) No. of winning times: The number of 1st place that the 'newcomer' retired racehorse achieved most at the highest level events will be the winner.

If a tie still exists, the 'newcomer' retired racehorse tied for first place will be declared joint winners for the award.

For Dressage:

- (a) Double up the points achieved at the Dressage Horse of the Year Show, higher accumulated points will be the winner, if a tie still exists;
- (b) Level of difficulty and percentage: The 'newcomer' retired racehorse participated at the higher level of events with higher percentage and without elimination or withdrawal will be the winner, if a tie still exists;
- (c) Collective marks achieved at the Dressage Horse of the Year Show: The 'newcomer' retired racehorse participated at the higher level of events with higher collective marks will be the winner.

If a tie still exists, the 'newcomer' retired racehorse tied for first place will be declared joint winners for the award.
